
MASATOSHI NOUMI, Kobe University, Japan

Elliptic hypergeometric functions and elliptic difference Painlevé equation

Elliptic hypergeometric functions are a new class of special functions that have been developed during these two decades. In this talk I will give an overview of various aspects of elliptic hypergeometric series and integrals with emphasis on connections with integrable systems including the elliptic difference Painlevé equation.