MARGHERITA DISERTORI, Bonn University

Random matrices and history dependent stochastic processes

In recent years unexpected connections have been discovered between lattice random Schrödinger operators and certain history dependent stochastic processes. I will give an overview and some recent results.