JEFF HARVEY, University of Chicago

Hecke Relations in Rational Conformal Field Theory

Hecke operators that act on characters of rational conformal field theories are defined and we use these to show that many RCFT characters are related by Hecke operators. These relations extend the previously studied Galois symmetry of the modular representations appearing in RCFT. Connections with modular linear differential equations will also be discussed.